Sew, What's New at the Shop?

Welcome to 2020! May the double digits of the New Year double all good wishes to our friends, customers, and their families!

We're kicking off the new year with three new classes from Maria Sendzik that will inspire your creative side and brighten any winter doldrums that may arise. Our first class is January 11. Stepping Up is a deceptively easy pattern that combines simple piecing with squares to create a steps-and-stairs pattern.

Maria's sample showcases pretty paisleys and florals and is on display in the shop. "Anything But Boring" is very appropriate for this fun quilt!

February 8 Maria will combine a simple color gradation technique with blocks of flowers to create a garden latticed with ombre fences for her

Flower Garden class. Your garden can bloom with bright or subtle blooms depending on the fabrics you select.

Maria's third class is scheduled for March 14 but don't let the name of the pattern scare you. The Winter Twist Quilt creates a lovely illusion of twists with half-square triangles and squares placed on point in this lively quilt. You can be sure Maria will make this an easy technique to guarantee success!

Some dates to be marked on your calendar: January 16-18 the store will be closed as I enjoy my Quilts on the Caribbean cruise. I am really looking forward to being with fellow quilters, sharing ideas and sunshine, and making my own batik fabric to show off when I return.

January 25 is Support Your Local Quilt Shop Day.

Our customers keep us going in so many ways and we truly appreciate you! March 21 is Na- tional and Worldwide Quilting Day.

Be sure to join us as we celebrate our favorite hobby with some fun and refreshments.

Our next issue of The Fat Quarterly will be ready for April. Till then, we'll look forward to seeing you in the shop. Happy sewing!
